Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously announced, on December 19, 2017, FinTech Acquisition Corp. II (the "Company") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") by and among the Company, FinTech II Merger Sub Inc., a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Merger Sub 1"), FinTech II Merger Sub 2 LLC, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Merger Sub 2") and together with Merger Sub 1, the "Merger Subs", Intermex Holdings II, Inc. ("Intermex") and SPC Intermex Representative LLC (the "Representative"), which provides for the acquisition of Intermex by the Company pursuant to the proposed merger of Merger Sub 1 with and into Intermex with Intermex continuing as the initial surviving entity (the "First Merger"), immediately following which the initial surviving entity will be merged (the "Second Merger," and together with the First Merger, the "Merger") with and into Merger Sub 2, with Merger Sub 2 continuing as the surviving entity and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.

Attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated into this Item 7.01 by reference is an investor presentation that will be used by the Company in making presentations to certain existing and potential stockholders of the Company with respect to the Merger.

The information in this Item 7.01 (including Exhibit 99.1) is being furnished and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise be subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed to be incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Additional Information About the Transaction and Where to Find It

The Company has filed with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4, which includes a preliminary proxy statement/prospectus of the Company, in connection with the Merger and will mail a definitive proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents to its stockholders. The Company's stockholders and other interested persons are advised to read, when available, the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus, and amendments thereto, and the definitive proxy statement/prospectus in connection with the Company's solicitation of proxies for its stockholders' meeting to be held to approve the Merger because the proxy statement/prospectus will contain important information about the Company, Intermex and the Merger. The definitive proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to stockholders of the Company as of a record date to be established for voting on the Merger. Stockholders will also be able to obtain copies of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and the proxy statement/prospectus, without charge, once available, at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or by directing a request to: FinTech Acquisition Corp. II, 2929 Arch Street, Suite 1703, Philadelphia, PA 19104, Attn: James J. McEntee, III.

Participants in Solicitation

The Company and its directors and officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies of the Company's stockholders with respect to the approval of the Merger. Information regarding the Company's directors and officers and a description of their interests in the Company is contained in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, which was filed with the SEC, and will also be contained in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and the definitive proxy statement/prospectus for the Merger when available. Each of these documents is, or will be, available at the SEC's website or by directing a request to the Company as described above under "Additional Information About the Transaction and Where to Find It."

In connection with the Merger, at any time prior to the special meeting to approve the Merger, certain existing Company stockholders, which may include certain of the Company's officers, directors and other affiliates, may enter into transactions with stockholders and other persons with respect to the Company's securities to provide such investors or other persons with incentives in connection with the approval and consummation of the Merger. While the exact nature of such incentives has not yet been determined, they might include, without limitation, arrangements to purchase shares from or sell shares to such investors and persons at nominal prices or prices other than fair market value. These stockholders will only effect such transactions when they are not then aware of any material nonpublic information regarding the Company, Intermex or their respective securities.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as “anticipate”, “believe”, “could”, “continue”, “expect”, “estimate”, “may”, “plan”, “outlook”, “future” and “project” and other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. These statements, which involve risks and uncertainties, relate to analyses and other information that are based on forecasts of future results and estimates of amounts not yet determinable and may also relate to our future prospects, developments and business strategies. In particular, such forward-looking statements include statements concerning the timing of the Merger; the business plans, objectives, expectations and intentions of the public company once the transaction is complete, and Intermex’s estimated and future results of operations, business strategies, competitive position, industry environment and potential growth opportunities. These statements are based on the Company’s or Intermex’s management’s current expectations and beliefs, as well as a number of assumptions concerning future events.

Such forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are outside the Company’s or Intermex’s control that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors include, but are not limited to, (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement; (2) the inability to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement due to the failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of the Company or other conditions to closing in the Merger Agreement; (3) the ability of the public entity to meet NASDAQ’s listing standards following the Merger; (4) the risk that the proposed transaction disrupts current plans and operations of Intermex as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Merger and related transactions; (5) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the proposed business combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with suppliers and agents and retain its management and key employees; (6) costs related to the proposed business combination; (7) changes in applicable laws or regulations; and (8) the possibility that Intermex may be adversely affected by other economic, business, regulatory and/or competitive factors. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements can be found in the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K, subsequently filed quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K, which are available, free of charge, at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov, and will also be provided in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and the Company’s proxy statement/prospectus when available. New risks and uncertainties arise from time to time, and it is impossible for us to predict these events or how they may affect us. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made, and the Company and Intermex undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Disclaimer

This communication shall neither constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which the offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

CONFIDENTIAL

Legal Disclaimers

This Investor Presentation contains "forward -looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "anticipate", "believe", "could", "continue", " expect", "estimate", "may", "plan", "outlook", "future" and "project" and other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. These statements, which involve risks and uncertainties, relate to analyses and other information that are based on forecasts of future results and estimates of amounts not yet determinable and may also relate to our future prospects, developments and business strategies. In particular, such forward-looking statements include statements concerning the timing of the proposed merger (the "Merger") of Intermex Holdings II, Inc. with and into a direct wholly owned subsidiary of FinTech Acquisition Corp. II ("FNTE"); the business plans, objectives, expectations and intentions of the public company once the transaction is complete, and Intermex' s estimated and future results of operations, business strategies, competitive position, industry environment and potential growth opportunities. These statements are based on FNTE's or Intermex's management's current expectations and beliefs, as well as a number of assumptions concerning future events. Such forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are outside FNTE's or Intermex's control that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as to the date made and FNTE and Intermex undertake no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

FNTE has filed with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4, which includes a preliminary proxy statement/prospectus of FNTE in connection with the Merger, and, when available, will mail a definitive proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents to its stockholders. FNTE's stockholders and other interested persons are advised to read the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus, the amendments thereto and, when available, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, in connection with FNTE's solicitation of proxies for its stockholders' meeting to be held to approve the Merger because the proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about FNTE, Intermex and the Merger. The definitive proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to stockholders of FNTE as of a record date to be established for voting on the Merger. Stockholders are also able to obtain copies of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and the proxy statement/prospectus, without charge, at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or by directing a request to: FinTech Acquisition Corp. II, 2929 Arch Street, Suite 1703, Philadelphia, PA 19104, Attn: James J. McEntee.

FNTE and its directors and officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies of FNTE's stockholders with respect to the approval of the Merger. Information regarding FNTE's directors and officers and a description of their interests in FNTE is contained in FNTE' s annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017 , which was filed with the SEC, and is also contained in the Registration Statement on Form S-4 and will be contained in the definitive proxy statement/prospectus for the Merger, when available. Each of these documents is, or will be, available at the SEC's website or by directing a request to FNTE as described above. In connection with the Merger, at any time prior to the special meeting to approve the Merger, certain existing FNTE stockholders, which may include certain of FNTE's officers, directors and other affiliates, may enter into transactions with stockholders and other persons with respect to FNTE's securities to provide such investors or other persons with incentives in connection with the approval and consummation of the Merger. While the exact nature of such incentives has not yet been determined, they might include, without limitation, arrangements to purchase shares from or sell shares to such investors and persons at nominal prices or prices other than fair market value. These stockholders will only effect such transactions when they are not then aware of any material nonpublic information regarding FNTE, Intermex or their respective securities.

The Intermex financial information for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2018 is unaudited.

Highly Compelling Investment Opportunity

Since 2011, Intermex has grown in excess of the industry while sustaining strong margins and increasing transaction growth to Mexico

This is driven by our disciplined approach to expansion which focuses on prioritizing agent productivity and consistently growing transactions per agent

Intermex's highly differentiated approach, along with its unique and efficient platform, has allowed the Company to significantly grow scale and profitability

Our technology infrastructure allows for the dependable transfer of money with one of the lowest cancellation rates in the industry

Core growth opportunity exists in the continued growth in stronghold states while increasing our market share in growth states

Additional growth opportunities, including the expansion of ancillary products as well as a focus on developing B2B processing relationships and growing our online presence, allow for confidence in continued growth

Large Industry with Accelerating Growth

The LAC Remittance Market

Strong Remittance Volume Growth in Intermex's Core Markets ⁽¹⁾

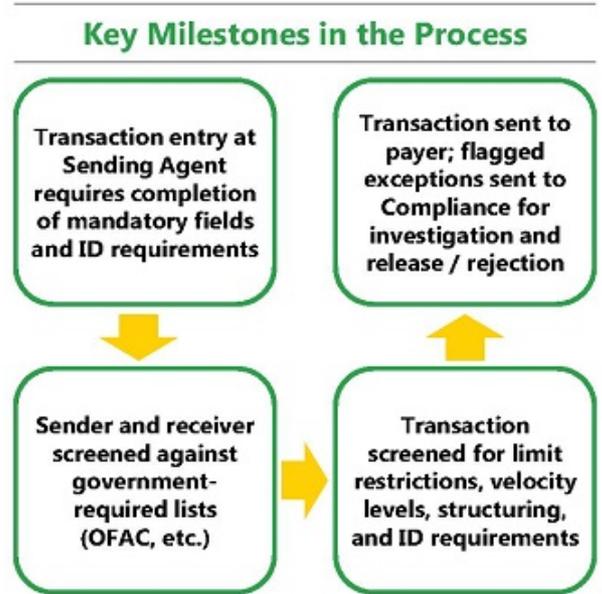

- Hispanics represent over 50% of foreign-born residents in the U.S. and are highly concentrated in California, Texas, Florida, and New York
- Substantial opportunities exist for continued increases in LAC remittance volume as housing starts grow and wages for foreign-born Hispanics increase
- As the number of Hispanic foreign-born workers continues to rise, volumes of remittances sent back to families in LAC countries should increase accordingly

Intermex Risk and Compliance Tools

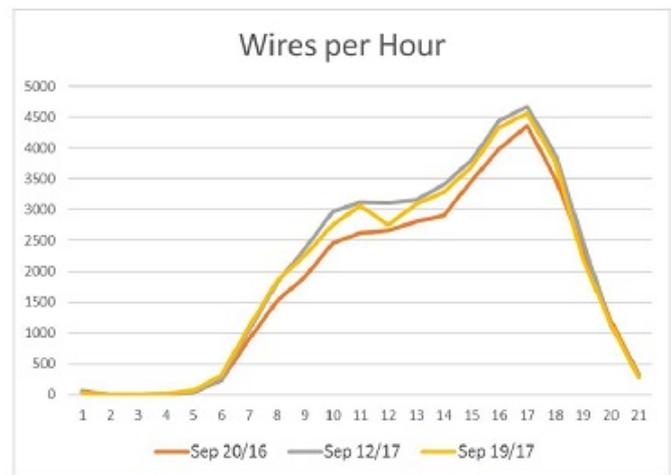

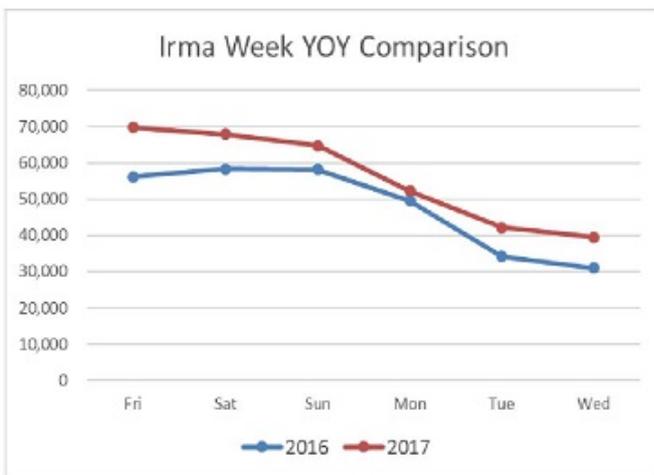

From Irma to Earthquake – Testing Resilience

Hurricane Irma

- Intermex deployed its Business Continuity Plan (BCP) 3 days before the event
- Mexico and Guatemala subsidiaries supported key stakeholders in Miami
 - Equipment supplied to key personnel (i.e. satellite phones, hotspots and backup laptops) allowed for uninterrupted communications
- HQ facilities ran on generator for 5 days
- Data and voice circuits were unaffected

Mexico Earthquake (Tuesday, Sept 19)

- Facilities in Puebla, Mexico were evacuated at 2:14PM EST
- Intermex immediately activated its BCP to enable operations center support
- Within a 2-hour period, calls were routed and processes handled as per BCP by Miami and Guatemala backup personnel

Note: Graphs show minimal to no impact to business operations.
